

ARTHUR STROCK — CURRICULUM VITAE

PERSONAL MISSION

Make the world a more peaceful place by teaching the value of dreamwork and dream sharing.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Teaching children and adults dream interpretation and application methods through writing and presentations. Teaching is based on the intention to promote improved quality of life at mental, emotional, physical and spiritual levels.

QUALIFICATIONS

NJ State certification as School Psychologist and School Social Worker
NJ State license as Clinical Social Worker

EMPLOYMENT

Currently

Independent educator

Formerly

Assistant Professor of Psychology at Bloomfield College and County College of Morris

Clinical Social Worker at Morristown Memorial Hospital

Inpatient Psychiatric Unit, Child Evaluation Center, and Emergency Room

School Psychologist for several New Jersey public school systems

EDUCATION

Undergraduate degree in psychology from Gettysburg College

Masters degrees from University of Richmond and Rutgers University

School psychology certification from Utah State University

Doctorate degree in psychology from Columbia Pacific University

ORGANIZATIONS

National Association of School Psychologists

National Association of Social Workers

Association for Research and Enlightenment

PUBLICATIONS

NJ NASW Focus

Stillpoint.org Website

Back to Basics Column in Dream Network Journal

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Whole Life Expo in New York City

IASD Annual Conferences in Hawaii and Virginia Beach, VA

Annual Conference of NJ Chapter, National Association of Social Workers, Atlantic City, NJ